“Purva Orient Grand is designed to honour both fierce exclusivity and resplendent community. A fusion of sophistication and earthiness, the structure uses transparency and wood that blends with the verdant world of Lalbagh. The building’s enhanced verticality makes it look like its reaching for the heavens. Other unique ideas include the inside-out design approach that creates visual expansiveness and the double-height experience on the ground level. Everything fuses into perfect harmony to create an architectural marvel.”

ANDY FISHER | CLUBHOUSE DESIGN

“We designed the entrance by standing outside and grasping the spectacular heritage of the area. You enter through the palatial and warm grand entrance gate that complements the botanical gardens all around. From thereon you get to the lobby where your spirits are lifted by the stunning double height design that’s dominated by a sculptural spiral staircase. But the best part waits for you on the highest floor. Here you experience residential leisure on a never-before level with the Rose and Cypress Clubhouse that’s inspired by the botanical gardens. This is a world unto itself, where you can enjoy relaxation, light snacks, entertainment, and wellness. And when the mood seizes you, there’s a fete area for outdoor parties.”
